

Piper, John. Life As A Vapor. Sisters, Oregon: Multnomah Publishers, 2004.

This is a devotional book with 31 readings to bolster your faith in Christ. Each one is 3-6 pages long and range from topics of self-control to Open Theism. Each reading is Christ-exalting and heart-challenging. My favorite part is that each reading ends with a prayer. I found these prayers to be useful when I was feeling spiritually “dry” and was able to adopt the prayers as my own. I also found them helpful to “jump-start” prayer times which, in that case, I used certain lines in the prayers as launching pads to pray about things that were related to each line. Piper’s devotionals are always practical, but that doesn’t mean they are fluffy. So, be ready to think and have your heart warmed by God’s Word.
