

4.2.12

Piper, John. Seeing and Savoring Jesus Christ. Wheaton, IL: Crossway Books, 2004.

This book follows on the heels of his earlier book, The Passion of Jesus Christ. It is meant to give you a picture of Christ so that your heart will engage in worshiping He who is worthy. The book is full of Scripture which makes it a fitting devotional. Each chapter is about 4-6 pages long and ends with a prayer that the reader can pray back to the Lord. Personally, I found the prayers as great examples of repentant heart cries and adoring praises of the supremacy of Christ. I was blessed by reading it and convicted of my need to adore Jesus in all of His attributes!

Level: Medium

Theological Stance: The Baptist General Conference

Rating: 8 ½

Recommend? Yes, I encourage you to use it as a part of your devotions because the chapter length is short. Thus, it allows you to get your Bible reading and prayer time in!